Chapter Meeting Held Reading, PA

The chapter meeting was held on Sunday September 18 at the Maxwell home in Reading, PA. Those in attendance were : Roni and Don Crabb, Barbara Maxwell, Ethel Cunningham, Earl and Carole Pickel, and Mark & Joan Prime. The meeting was called to order by Don Crabb and minutes from the previous meeting were approved. Don Crabb then gave the treasurers report. Carole Pickel gave a report of the last FGSA board meeting, held in Moundsville.

New Business: Don Crabb reported on the Chapter web site - 132 hits since July 17. Next was discussion of the Fall Eastern National Glass Show. Members discussed the display for this show, Fostoria Colors, and volunteered items from their collection in various colors for the display. Members then stuffed envelopes for the Partnership mailing.

Partnership Mailing Report:

As of this publication date, the response from our mailing has totaled $1,100. Every year the response has increased. Thanks to everyone for helping.

Fostoria Display at Fall Eastern National Show:

Our Chapter presented the Fostoria display at the Eastern National Show in Harrisburg on Nov. 18, 19, and 20. As noted, the display featured an array of Fostoria colors. Roni Crabb, Ethel Cunningham, and Carole Pickel provided glassware for the display. Helpers for the show were: Don & Roni Crabb, Mark & Joan Prime, Don & Barbara Redlich, and Ethel Cunningham. We sold Fostoria reference books and signed up a new member. We also raffled off a #2288 Ebony Tut vase. The winner was Tanya Noggle of Annville, PA.
